2 Description of Subject

This course offers an interdisciplinary perspective of ASEAN and EU. The course focuses on the processes of integrations. It borrows concepts, theories, methodologies and models from economics, history, law and political science and concentrates them on the issue areas that form the core concerns of both the ASEAN and EU.

3 Objectives

- Introduce students to the main topics in the subjects.
- Locate the subject position within international studies in order for student to make critical assessment about the subject importance and relationship with other subjects in the area of study.
- Expose students to recent developments in the area.
- Familiarize students with the essential bibliography on the subject.
- Guide student on developing skills in practical aspects of the subject (if any).

4 Competency

After having the course, students are expected to:

- develop an understanding of the concept, structure and processes of ASEAN Integration;
- analyse and explore the core concerns of the ASEAN, an increasingly complex and fascinating political and socio-economic landscape;
- identify the role of Indonesia in ASEAN;
- formulate strategic foreign policy of Indonesia in ASEAN.
